

Number Pyramid Puzzles

Insert a non-zero digit in each vacant square so that the digit in each square is the sum or difference of the digits in the two squares immediately below it. Digits in similarly colored squares will be the same.

